ANNEX I - CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (English)

The ECOWAS Court of Justice is updating its roster of freelance translators in French, English and Portuguese, to support its activities. Qualified and experienced professionals are invited to express interest in being added to the Court's freelance roster. Successful applicants may be considered for future freelance assignments with the Court depending on qualifications, language combination, and availability.

Requirements:

1. Freelance Translators:
   a. Master's degree in Translation or equivalent from a recognized university, with a minimum of three (3) years of relevant experience; OR
   b. Bachelor's degree in Languages or equivalent, with at least five (5) years of professional translation experience.
   c. Proficiency in computer-assisted translation tools, machine translation tools, and electronic terminology databases.
   d. Excellent writing and analytical skills with the highest standards of accuracy and consistency.
   e. Ability to work with on-screen editing tools and maintain terminological coherence across documents.

2. Required Documents:
   a. Curriculum Vitae (CV) indicating language combinations and areas of specialization
   b. Copies of academic and professional certificates
   c. Evidence of professional experience

3. Submission Details:
   Expressions of interest should be submitted electronically to the ECOWAS Court of Justice through the email address indicated in the publication. Only candidates meeting the required standards will be contacted for inclusion in the Court's freelance roster.

4. Important Notice:
   Inclusion in the roster does NOT constitute an offer of employment. Selected professionals will be contacted on a need basis for specific freelance assignments under the conditions and rates applicable in ECOWAS.
